DETAILED ACTION

1. Claims 1-22 are pending.

Double Patenting

2. A rejection based on double patenting of the "same invention" type finds its support in the language of 35 U.S.C. 101 which states that "whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process ... may obtain a patent therefor ..." (Emphasis added). Thus, the term "same invention," in this context, means an invention drawn to identical subject matter. See Miller v. Eagle Mfg. Co., 151 U.S. 186 (1894); In re Ockert, 245 F.2d 467, 114 USPQ 330 (CCPA 1957); and In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970).

A statutory type (35 U.S.C. 101) double patenting rejection can be overcome by canceling or amending the conflicting claims so they are no longer coextensive in scope. The filing of a terminal disclaimer cannot overcome a double patenting rejection based upon 35 U.S.C. 101.

3. Claims 1-22 are provisionally rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 as claiming the same invention as that of claims 1-22 of copending Application No. 09/980,875. This is a provisional double patenting rejection since the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

4. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Art Unit: 1648

- 5. Claims 1-22 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, because the specification, while being enabling for an optimized activity assay for FabH mechanism with acetyl-CoA and malonyl-ACP, does not reasonably provide enablement for the inhibition of an activity or expression of a polypeptide comprising an amino acid sequence of interest or FabH polypeptide in an individual nor a method fro the treatment of an individual having need to inhibit FabH polypeptide. The specification does not enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make the invention commensurate in scope with these claims. All claims are directed to either the inhibition or the method of treatment; however, Applicants have not shown any data nor proved that their polypeptides or polynucleotides encoding FabH polypeptides can actually inhibit the fatty acid biosynthesis. There are no prior art that may support such a method of treatment for a similar biosynthesis pathway in an individual.
- 6. No claim is allowed.
